Your name has been provided as someone who is interested in attending a beginner's beekeeping course. The Jersey Cape Branch of the New Jersey Beekeepers Association is holding a 7-session course in the spring of 2012. The first 6 sessions will be held on Friday evenings from 7 PM to 9 PM at the Rutgers Cooperative Extension Office, 355 Court house - South Dennis Road, Cape May Court House, starting on February 17th through March 23rd. The last session will be held on a Saturday when the bees arrive in April. The course will cover topics from bee biology, management, hive construction, pests and the installation of bees into the hive. The Jersey Cape Branch is offering this course in several different Options depending on the interest of the individual. First priority will be given to members of a branch of the NJ State Beekeepers Association. A $100 deposit is required to hold a spot and order one of the bee Options. Please make check payable to: Jersey Cape Beekeepers and send it along with the registration form to Bill Eisele at the above address. Thanks, we hope to hear from you by February 3, 2012.

Bill Eisele, President, Jersey Cape Branch of the New Jersey Beekeepers Association
