

New Jersey Beekeepers Association

Fall Meeting – October 11, 2008

Rutgers EcoComplex, Bordentown, NJ

The featured speaker will be Greg Hunt, Associate Professor Entomology, Purdue University, who will speak in the morning about the Honeybee Genome project. He has focused on mapping genes that influence social behaviors in honey bees. He has been involved in the successful mapping of genes for such behaviors as defensiveness, choice of foraging resource (pollen or nectar) and hygienic behavior.

The fee for this meeting will be $20 per person if you RSVP; or $24 at the door if you do not RSVP. Reservations can be made by calling Curtis Crowell at 609 651-4585. Payment in advance is appreciated. Make checks payable to "CJBA" and mail to:
